Join us for a three-part, interdisciplinary symposium that explores authoritarianism from the end of the Cold War to the rise of extreme nationalism and anti-immigration sentiment today.

CHALLENGING AUTHORITARIANISM: Stories and Strategies of Resistance

April 12, 2019
9:30 am - 3:30 pm
Eggers 220 (Strasser Legacy Room)

I: 9:30 - 10:45 am
Revisiting Spring 1989
How does the end of the Cold War look today?

Speakers:
- Prof. Cheryl Reed (Newhouse)
- Prof. Robert Terrell (Maxwell)
- Prof. Jeremy Wallace (Cornell University)
- James Graham Wilson (US State Dept., Office of the Historian)

II: 11:00 am - 12:30 pm
Authoritarianism Today
Is authoritarianism on the rise globally?

Speakers:
- Prof. Dimitar Gueorguiev (Maxwell)
- Prof. Azra Hromadžić (Maxwell)
- Prof. Christine Mehta (Newhouse)
- Prof. Latif Tas (Maxwell)
- Prof. Brian Taylor (Maxwell)

III: 2:00 - 3:30 pm
Immigration & National Security
What is the relationship between immigration, nationalism, and authoritarianism?

Speakers:
- Prof. Janice Dowell (SJ Philosophy)
- Prof. Shana Kushner Gadarian (Maxwell)
- Prof. Audie Klotz (Maxwell)
- Sefa Secen (Maxwell)

For more information or to request accessibility arrangements, please contact Havva Karakas-Keles, hkarakas@syr.edu.