Keynote:

Adela C. Licona

(University of Arizona)
scholar. photographer. artist. poet. activist.

TENDER R/AGE :: RABIA TIERNA
Thursday, February 21 ♦ 5:30–7:30 p.m. ♦ Maxwell Auditorium
Reception follows lecture.
This Syracuse Symposium keynote address is a call to action: NO CAGES! JAULAS NO. Licona discusses her multi-modal interventionist art project, addresses long histories of forced separation, and contextualizes cruelties being enacted on migrant and refugee children and their families at the US/MEXICO border. Computer Aided Realtime Translation (CART) provided. Contact humcenter@syr.edu by Feb. 13 to request other accessibility accommodations.

RELATE: A Workshop on Engaged Scholarship
Friday, February 22 ♦ 10-11:30 a.m. ♦ 304 Tolley Humanities Building
Using a shared dialogue format, participants will examine action-oriented, interdisciplinary approaches to community building and engagement through a relational, borderlands framework. RSVP by Feb. 13 to humcenter@syr.edu and include any accessibility requests.

Learn more about each event at our website: http://humcenter.syr.edu.

Syracuse University
Humanities Center

Special thanks to our additional supporters:
* Art and Music Histories * Communication and Rhetorical Studies * Cultural Foundations of Education *
* Latino-Latin American Studies * Lender Center for Social Justice * Office of Multicultural Affairs *
* Women’s and Gender Studies * Writing Studies, Rhetoric, and Composition *