

2019-20

Humanities New York Public Humanities Graduate Student Fellowships

Camilla Bell
PhD Student in Cultural Foundations of Education

Info Session
Friday, Dec. 7, 2018
10:30am - 12pm
304 Tolley Humanities Building

Learn more about this opportunity from our current and former fellows!

A light breakfast and refreshments will be provided.

Gemma
Cooper-Novack
PhD Student in
Literacy in Education

The Benefits:

- One-Year Fellowship: August 2019 - June 2020
- Two-day orientation on August 19-20, 2019 in New York City (all expenses paid)
- Fellowship stipend of $8,000 plus $500 travel & research stipend
- Receive training in methods & approaches to public humanities (all expenses paid)
- Develop a public project related to your own scholarship
- Partner with a community organization

Application Deadline: Friday, February 15, 2019

For more info and to apply: Visit humanitiesny.org under “Apply,” or humcenter.syr.edu under “Forms”

Questions? Please contact:

Aimee Germain, CNY Humanities Corridor
315.443.8685 or aagermai@syr.edu

or

Adam Capitanio, Humanities New York
212.233.1131, acapitanio@humanitiesny.org

Humanities Corridor
Central New York

Syracuse University
Humanities Center

This fellowship is supported by a grant from The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation.

The Central New York Humanities Corridor & Syracuse University Humanities Center, in partnership with Humanities New York, call for applicants for the 2019-2020 Graduate Student Public Humanities Fellowships

Developed in partnership with the New York Council for the Humanities, the CNY Humanities Corridor, and the Humanities Center, this year-long Fellowship involves training in the methods and approaches of public scholarship combined with a project that explores the public dimensions of the fellow's research, in partnership with a community organization.

The skills and experiences afforded by the Fellowship are intended to serve scholars who have a record of working with the public as well as those who are starting to explore the public humanities. It is equally valuable for scholars who plan to pursue careers within the academy and those who plan to pursue other career paths.

ELIGIBILITY:

At Syracuse University, the program is open to graduate students pursuing Ph.D. degrees in Anthropology, Composition and Cultural Rhetoric, English, Geography, History, Philosophy, Religion, Sociology, Cultural Foundations of Education, and Literacy in Education, as well as M.F.A. students in Creative Writing or VPA (3-year programs only).

FELLOWSHIP REQUIREMENTS:

- Fellows are required to attend a two-day orientation run by Humanities New York at their New York City office on Monday, August 19 and Tuesday, August 20, 2019.
- During the Fellowship year, Fellows will develop a plan to implement a public humanities project and work with community partners on that project.
- Fellows will participate in workshops scheduled for December 2019 and June 2020.
- Fellows will present the outcomes of their research and public work to the university community in coordination with the Central New York Humanities Corridor and the Syracuse University Humanities Center and submit a final report to Humanities New York.
- Graduate student public humanities fellows are eligible to receive other Syracuse University support/stipends.
- While the program is open to students of the humanities broadly defined, proposed projects and community-based collaborations must have humanistic methods and content as their central focus.

DURATION & STIPEND:

Duration of the Fellowship is August 2019 to June 2020, including mandatory attendance at a two-day orientation on August 19-20, 2019 in New York City and subsequent workshops. The Fellowship stipend is $8,000, plus a $500 travel & research stipend. The Fellowship is supported by a grant from The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation.

TO APPLY:

Applicants should submit an online application, including a resume/CV and two references, by Friday, February 15, 2019. Applicants will be notified of final decisions by Friday, April 19, 2019.

- The online application will be posted at Humanities New York's program management platform: humanitiesny.org/our-work/partnerships/humanities-fellowship/
- Applicants will need to create an account in the system, even if they have applied in prior years.

CONTACT:

Humanities New York Program Officer Adam Capitanio, 212.233.1131 or acapitanio@humanitiesny.org

or

CNY Humanities Corridor Program Coordinator Aimee Germain, 315.443.8685, aagermai@syr.edu