Humanities New York
Public Humanities Graduate Student Fellowships

The Benefits:

- One-Year Fellowship: August 2020 - June 2021
- Two-day orientation on August 17-18, 2020 in New York City (all expenses paid)
- Fellowship stipend of $8,000 plus $500 professional development fund
- Receive training in methods & approaches to public humanities (all expenses paid)
- Develop a public project related to your own scholarship
- Partner with a community organization
- The possibility for up to $2,000 in seed funding for Fellows’ projects

Info Session
Friday, Jan. 24, 2020
9:30am - 11:30am
304 Tolley Humanities Building

Learn more about this opportunity from our current and former fellows!

A light breakfast and refreshments will be provided.

Alanna Louise Warner-Smith
PhD Student in Anthropology

Myriam Lacroix
MFA Student in Creative Writing

Application Deadline: Monday, February 17, 2020

For more info and to apply: Visit humanitiesny.org under “Apply,” or humcenter.syr.edu under “Forms”

Questions? Please contact:
Aimee Germain, CNY Humanities Corridor
315.443.8685 or aagermai@syr.edu

or
Adam Capitanio, Humanities New York
212.233.1131, acapitanio@humanitiesny.org

This fellowship is supported by a grant from The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation.
The Central New York Humanities Corridor & Syracuse University Humanities Center, in partnership with Humanities New York, call for applicants for the

2020-2021 Graduate Student Public Humanities Fellowships

Developed in partnership with Humanities New York, the CNY Humanities Corridor, and the Humanities Center, this year-long Fellowship involves workshops in the methods and approaches of the public humanities, mentorship and advice, networking opportunities, and financial support, all to bolster the Fellow's development of a public project related to their own scholarship in partnership with a community organization or non-profit.

The skills and experiences afforded by the Fellowship are intended to serve scholars who have a record of working with the public as well as those who are starting to explore the public humanities. It is equally valuable for scholars who plan to pursue careers within the academy and those who plan to pursue other paths.

ELIGIBILITY:
At Syracuse University, the program is open to graduate students pursuing Ph.D. degrees in Anthropology, Composition and Cultural Rhetoric, English, Geography, History, Philosophy, Religion, Sociology, Cultural Foundations of Education, and Literacy in Education, as well as M.F.A. students in Creative Writing or VPA (3-year programs only).

FELLOWSHIP REQUIREMENTS:
• Fellows are required to attend a two-day orientation run by Humanities New York at their New York City office on Monday, August 17 and Tuesday, August 18, 2020.
• During the Fellowship year, Fellows will develop a plan to implement a public humanities project and work with community partners on that project.
• Fellows will participate in workshops scheduled for December 2020 and June 2021.
• Fellows will present the outcomes of their research and public work to the university community in coordination with the CNY Humanities Corridor and SU Humanities Center and submit reports to Humanities New York.
• Graduate student public humanities fellows are eligible to receive other Syracuse University support/stipends.
• While the program is open to students of the humanities broadly defined, proposed projects and community-based collaborations must have humanistic methods and content as their central focus.

DURATION & STIPEND:
Duration of the Fellowship is August 2020 to June 2021, including mandatory attendance at a two-day orientation on August 17-18, 2020 in New York City and subsequent workshops. The Fellowship stipend is $8,000, plus a $500 professional development fund. It also reimburses expenses for travel to Fellowship workshops, as well as providing the possibility for up to $2,000 in seed funding for Fellows' projects. The Fellowship is supported by a grant from The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation.

TO APPLY:
Interested applicants should submit an online application, which includes a proposal statement, CV, and contact information for two references, by Monday, February 17, 2020. Applicants will be notified of final decisions by Friday, April 17, 2020.
• The online application can be accessed through Humanities New York’s grants management platform: https://humanitiesny.fluxx.io. Applicants will need to create an account in the system in advance of applying.

CONTACT:
Humanities New York Program Officer Adam Capitanio, 212.233.1131 or acapitanio@humanitiesny.org; or CNY Humanities Corridor Program Coordinator Aimee Germain, 315.443.8685, aagermai@syr.edu.