

Syracuse University

Center for Learning and Student Success (CLASS)

Seeing with the Possibility of Being Changed: Drawing as Meditation

A Hands-On Workshop with
Howard University Professor of Architecture
Bradford C. Grant

Whether you are an artist or haven't drawn since elementary school, this workshop invites you to (re)discover drawing as an act of reflection and contemplative practice. Grant focuses on the process of seeing rather than on the resulting image. Come sketch a path to personal change.

Open to all members of the Syracuse University community.

Wednesday April 13, 2022 from 11:00 AM - 12:30 PM

Peter Graham Scholarly Commons, 114 Bird Library

We request that all participants wear masks in this event space.

Limited Seating Available. RSVP and requests for accommodations required by Wednesday, March 30 to Meghan Graham (315-443-2005 or class@syr.edu).

Additional Supporters: The Lender Center for Social Justice, Hendricks Chapel, the Contemplative Collaborative, Student Association, College of Visual and Performing Arts, the University Libraries, Office of Diversity and Inclusion, The Stevenson Educational Center for Student-Athlete Academic Development, Division of the Student Experience, and Office of Academic Affairs.