

Family Pictures in the Archive

Pop-Up Exhibition

November 15th, 2023

5-7pm

Special Collections Research Center

6th floor of Bird Library

222 Waverly Ave., Syracuse, NY

Family Pictures in the Archive is a pop-up exhibition that features Black photography from Syracuse University Libraries' Special Collections Research Center in conversation with local photographs and stories shared by participants in last month's Family Pictures Syracuse launch events.

Come celebrate everyday photographs, local stories, and histories that can be discovered within the SCRC's archive! Bring your family photographs to share with others! Learn best practices around preserving and caring for your photos!

Questions or to request accommodations, email Max Wagh: mlwagh@syr.edu

Presented by Syracuse University Libraries' Special Collections Research Center, Family Pictures Syracuse & the Department of English, with support from Light Work, the Community Folk Art Center, the Humanities Center, the Engaged Humanities Network, Humanities NY, the Allyn Family Foundation, and the Family Pictures Institute for Inclusive Storytelling.
